Girl Scout Campers Pleased To Get TV Actor's Autograph

By BETTY MITCHELL
DA 6-4488
The hot summer days are upon us and if the activities of our community are any indication, they are busy days too. One of the organizations which is very busy these days is Senior Girl Scout Troop 398. The girls of this troop just returned from a camping trip at North Shore Camp at Lake Arrowhead.

Nin Wood received the girls' thanks when he helped gather all the gear necessary for such an outing. Another member of our community, Loring Bignon, furnished transportation for the girls both ways.

Leaving on July 23 the girls, including Anita Wood, Shirley Cooper, Patricia Kamfonik, Marilyn and Carolyn Welch, Mary Burke, Moreen Gordon, Sonny and Carol Gooler and their leader, Mrs. Robert Wagner of Winlock Dr., set out for their seven-day adventure. Miss Carol Gooler acted as Mrs. Wagner's assistant.

They all had a wonderful time with swimming and other sports, along with a day spent at Green Valley Lake and an evening spent in the town of Arrowhead. Several lucky members returned with George Nader's autograph after a chance meeting with him. He is the TV star on "Foreign Intrigue" and so the girls can say they have met a real celebrity.

Now the girls' thoughts will be with the selection coming up next month when it will be decided what lucky Girl Scouts will be able to attend the National Round-up in Detroit next year. Incidentally, many of the group's activities are made possible by the sponsorship of the Walteria Business Women's club.

Senior Boy Scout Troop 240 spent the same week camping as the girls did. With their leader, Robert Wagner they left on the 23 for Boy Scout Camp Bighorn out of Cedar Glenn. This camping spot is near Lake Arrowhead. Ten boys were able to go on this trip with John Birmingham helping out by furnishing transportation both going and coming.

Gathering 'round the camp fires were Robert Adams, Larry Buggeln, Richard Birmingham, Victor Pestoff, Sam Marzovich, Michael Reed, Michael Hilborn, Terry Petty, George Ross, Eddy Sanders, and of course, Mr. Wagner. Helping make this trip possible were the troop's sponsors, the Walteria Businessmen's club.

Mrs. Joy Martin, of Rosemead, returned home after spending a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Pauline Streeter and family, of Adolph Ave.

On Saturday, July 23, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. McCall, of Neece Ave., entertained guests from Ventura, in the persons of Mr. and Mrs. Dale W. Grubbs.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Pickett of Newton St., have returned recently after a pleasant week's vacation spent at Yosemite National Park.

A welcome guest at the Herb Farris home on Danaha St. recently was Mrs. Charlotte Ruge of Buellton, Calif. Mrs. Ruge is Mrs. Farris' mother. Most of the week was spent in happily visiting with one another, but their schedule was varied by a couple of short jaunts to interesting places.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Stephens, of Newton St., have picked on San Francisco as the spot for a couple of weeks' relaxation.

Speaking of San Francisco, that's where the John Monaghan, of Danaha St., went on a combination vacation and business trip. Staying at beautiful Redwood City they enjoyed the swimming and scenery and lovely weather.

John had to spend part of his time with business, but managed to find room for enjoyment too. They returned home last Saturday, only to have John board the plane for San Francisco for another week of work. Bea will be very happy to welcome him back at the airport tomorrow evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Harrison, of Riverside, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Harrison, of Las Colona Ave., over the week end of July 23.

Another couple back from a very happy vacation are the Gene Andersons, of Dalemead St. Hitching their trailer to their car they took off on a combination camping and sight-seeing trip. First stop was at the Mammoth Lakes where they spent nine days being lazy, fishing, and just generally enjoying themselves. Then on to Carson City, Lake Tahoe, Sacramento and San Francisco. They made a short stop in San Mateo to visit with Gene's grandfather, Louis Anderson. Then on home tired and happy after a wonderful two weeks.

Enjoying a musical evening last Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Frank DeCaro, of Danaha St. The Decaros met with friends in Los Angeles and then went to the Hollywood Bowl to listen to the wonderful music directed by Andrea Kostelanetz.

Little Marilee Mitchell celebrated her third birthday in style on July 22, when she had in a group of little friends to wish her happy birthday at a luncheon party. Gathering 'round to play games and then eat hot dogs and potato salad, cake and punch, while watching Sheriff John, were Linda and Cathy Ellis, Linda McFarland, Teresa Fitzpatrick, Peggy Sellers, Jimmy Harner, Stephen Allison, Franky DeCaro and Hilary Gall.

Linda's father, W. McFarland, left last Sunday for a two-week trip to St. Paul, Minnesota, where he will attend the Electronics Research Assn. Division of Remington Rand.

Jerry Carrillo, of Hawthorne Blvd., is spending a month camping at Camp Juniper, Sierra, in the San Bernardino Mountains.

Healing Restored to Christianity

Through the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, the lost element of spiritual healing is restored for all mankind. The thoughtful study of the Bible in the light of this great book has lifted countless thousands from sickness to health and from failure to success. Such experience is equally available for all!

Visit a Christian Science Reading Room today. Here you may read, borrow, or purchase Science and Health and the Bible, as well as other authorized Christian Science literature.
